

Influenza

"No one who has not had influenza can realize the suffering it causes or how it defies treatment. I know of nothing that will so promptly relieve as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, for when it is taken the pain in the chest disappears, the fever subsides and the whole body becomes more comfortable."

Then again, the after effects of influenza are often even more distressing than the disease itself, but they can be avoided if you use

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Though the greatest danger from this disease is pneumonia, we have never known a single case of influenza to result in it when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was freely given. The persistent cough that frequently follows influenza can be relieved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and should not be allowed to continue until it becomes troublesome.

VALENTINE THEATRE.

The attraction which the Valentine Theatre, Toledo, has booked for Friday and Saturday, December 10-11, is "The Case of Becky," a play in three acts by Edward Knoblauch, whose other plays such as "Kismet," "The Faun," and "Milestones," the latter in collaboration with Arnold Bennett have enjoyed unusual popularity in this country. According to advance reports Miss Starr, created little short of a sensation when she appeared in this play at the Belasco Theatre, New York. The character which she portrays is entirely unlike anything she has appeared in since the days of "The Rose of the Rancho," and is remarkable for its poise and grace, its poetic beauty and great spiritualism. Coming as it does at a time when Miss Starr had established herself firmly in a series of deeply emotional roles in such plays as "The East-ern Way," "The Case of Becky," and "The Secret," her triumph in "Marie-Odile" is all the more significant by way of contrast.

WHY DO YOU SUFFER PAINFUL THINGS

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with that headache, all-around feeling that is often the result of kidney trouble. It is no longer necessary for you to contend with disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders or be tortured with rheumatism, stiff or swollen joints or the heart-wrenching miseries that follow as a result of neglected or poorly working kidneys. Solvax quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Solvax is a wonderful discovery that has been used so uniformly successful that every package is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve the worst case of kidney disorder.

"Your money back if you want it," is the way Read & Wager, the great kidney druggists, are selling this popular remedy. A guarantee like that speaks eloquently for the merit of Solvax.

Do not suffer another minute. Solvax will relieve you. If it doesn't, tell Read & Wager that you want your money back and they will cheerfully refund it.

BIBLE INTERPRETATION.

Do we take the Bible as it reads or do we twist it? Which?

The question is frequently asked, why is it that there are so many different ideas, views and opinions concerning the bible? We are taught that it is God's word, and hence it must be free from ambiguity, for it was dictated by an errorless God, and if there had been any error or mistake made He surely would have corrected it. He never said anything ironically. He said what He meant and meant what He said.

The great trouble with man. So many people—even professed Christians—are not willing to take God at His word. They will twist the bible and a sledge hammer to twist it to a way to harmonize with their life, their creed instead of making their life harmonize with the bible. No doubt you have heard the old adage which says, "The bible is like an old fiddle on which each person can play a tune to suit him." This is true when we aim to make it say what we want to say, but it is not true when we aim to make our lives harmonize with the bible we can play but one tune, and that is a holiness tune.

Truly we can never twist the bible to chime with our ideas, but if there is any truth in the bible, (and I believe it is all truth) eternal banishment from the presence of the Lord awaits us. 2 Thess. 1, 9. A pervert of the truth is one among the worst evils we have to contend with to day. It is one of the worst lies that can be told. It is one of the most dangerous of all.

Intelligent readers will see that it is giving it a nice little twist. Good works are all right but they will save nobody. Read 1 Cor. 13, for proof. When we are wholly sanctified by our good works will crop out as naturally as it is for a rambo apple tree to bear rambo apples. Dare you gain say this statement?

Believers do not like to distort the scripture can be completely eradicated by sanctification or holiness. These will root it out if nothing else will. They are synonymous terms, and are used by the same scholars. It is the only thing on this side of heaven that will give us an abundant entrance into heaven. Yet I know many who shamefully ignore it, to twist it to fit their own ideas. Their creeds almost never agree with the scriptures. They fail to preach pungently, definitely on the subject. They have become almost rule-bound in their faith of the church. No man can preach that doctrine with good results until he has been baptized with the Holy Ghost. They are only taking the scriptures mentioned in the scriptures: John's baptism, unto repentance, and Christ's baptism, with the Holy Ghost. A person may have the baptism of repentance and know nothing of the baptism with the Holy Ghost. A minister may be a learned man, highly educated, eloquent, mighty in his preaching, and yet know nothing of the baptism with the Holy Ghost. I can prove this statement by a number of other scriptures. You to one. Please read Acts 18, 24, 25 for proof.

There is not another portion of scripture in the bible that is so widely and yet Jesus Christ endorses it. Please read Matt. 12, 40. Now if the whale (as Matt. calls it) did not swallow Jonah, how could he live three days and three nights in the whale, then Christ never was three days and three nights in the heart of the earth, and of course He never rose for our redemption. So you see it knocks the bottom out of the whole affair, for Paul tells us plainly, "If Christ be not risen, (could He rise if He had not been buried), your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins."

I can give you many passages of scripture but will not weary your patience with them, but will conclude this article by citing you to 2 Peter 3, 16. This gives us an idea of the awfulness of perverting the scripture. We read there that it is the unlearned and unstable that wrest the scriptures to their own destruction. In the seventeenth verse it tells us "beware lest we be led away with the error of the wicked." Another awful doom is pronounced on such persons in Rev. 22, 18, 19. May God bless us with plenty of grace and good common sense that will teach us not to waste our time running after the devils. Make-believe.

THE RUTH ST. DENIS COMPANY

INTRODUCE MANY NEW DANCES

When the versatile Dance artist, Ruth St. Denis and her company appear at the Valentine, Toledo, will introduce many new dances that will be entirely new. These dances, including Oriental, Greek and Modern, have all been created by Miss St. Denis and her dancing partner, Mr. Ted Shawn. Perhaps the most popular of the new modern dances is the St. Denis Mazurka, which has already received a furore in St. Louis, Chicago, Los Angeles, Portland and Seattle, and is now being featured at all the society dances. Another of the new dances, a creation by Mr. Shawn, is the "Hawaiian Hula," one of the most graceful of modern dances, and when danced to the native Hawaiian record music, creates a sensation. The other modern dance numbers are "The Sea Gull Waltz," "The Shawn Step," "The Tokio Trot," "The Canton Caper," "The Polo Dance," and "Rase Ball Dance." These dances are all known as the "Denishawn Dances," having received their premier at the Denishawn School of Dancing, Los Angeles, where Miss St. Denis and Mr. Shawn have established a permanent school for dancing and its related arts. New standard dances include such popular numbers as "The Balancino," "Le Roulé," the latest Fox Trot and other creations.

To Miss St. Denis' already extensive repertoire of Oriental Dances will be added her new production of "The Garden of Kama," a beautiful legendary dance of India, created from Lawrence Hope's poems. This new dance play is perhaps the most ambitious of any thing Miss St. Denis has yet created as it requires a large number of solo dancers, Nautch dancing girls, Indian attendants and other assistants. The costumes are very elaborate and kaleidoscopic in its rich colorings of oriental fashions. "The Garden of Kama" is staged with special sets of scenery complete, designed from original drawings and paintings of an Indian home and compound.

Another of the feature dances is "The Sea Spirit" pronounced by critics as the most artistic pantomime this inventive genius has yet offered.

Mr. Shawn will also introduce a series of beautiful Classic Dances called the "Fountain Series" in which he is assisted by an ensemble of Grecian dancing girls.

QUEER QUIRKS OF NEWS.

Thomasville, Ga.—Malachi Jenkins, a local boy, confessed that he had entered the matrimony state two times. He is regarded as a probable president of the United States of Matrimony which he has founded.

Wilmington, Del.—While speeding between this city and New York, engineer Eugene Jamison, of the Norfolk express, was nearly blinded when a partridge flew in his face.

Bellefonte, O.—James McKeever of McGuffey, although totally blind, drives his own automobile when some one is in the car and gives him directions. He has taken the machine apart and put it together again and is an accomplished musician.

Washington, D. C.—The Blue Ridge mountaineer who didn't know the difference between a mountain and a hill, has been out done by a Pennsylvania stranger who appeared in the White House grounds recently. "Hello!" said the stranger to a policeman. The cop nodded. "Is that you, Ted?" the stranger asked. "Why, Ted?" Teddy Roosevelt, of course, the stranger replied.

Dublin, Pa.—When William Nesbitt, a local boy, was asked to give a funeral for Blackshear for failure to pay a bill, he was proved in court that Nesbitt had furnished a casket that too short for the deceased. In order not to delay the funeral he had trimmed the body to make it fit in.

San Francisco, Cal.—"Swearing off" from his drinking, Jason Rutter, a pioneer of Siskiyou county, better known as seventy-two years old, and had been an inveterate smoker for more than fifty years. He quit and his heart failed for lack of its stimulation.

Rushville, Mo.—Ora Tomlinson, believed to have been demented, took a knife from a child, opened it and swallowed it blade foremost. An X-ray showed the knife landed in his right lung, and physicians say he is bleeding to death.

Salisbury, Mo.—William Hamack of this town has never had a tooth pulled by a dentist or had his hair cut or face shaved by a barber. He is ninety-two years of age.

BOY AND A CALF

The Story of How a Jackson County Boy Won a Trip to Washington By Grooming a Half-Blood Calf to Victory.

The story of how L. L. Cherrington, a farmer lad of Jackson County, Ohio, groomed a half-blood calf to victory over thoroughbreds and won a trip to Washington-Philadelphia-New York in the face of apparently insurmountable odds, bears more than ordinary interest.

Here is the story, in the words of young Cherrington as he related it in a letter to T. P. Riddle, Lima, Director of Junior Contest:

"When the Buckeye Corn Special last fall, I little thought I would go on the next one, for I thought I could not hope to compete successfully against the boys on bottom-land farms in raising corn. Ours is a Jackson county hill farm.

"But last Spring, The Citizens' Bank of Jackson offered a trip on the Buckeye Corn Special for the best calf raised in the county. Even then, I did not think I would enter the contest, because we did not have full blooded stock. I thought it would be useless to enter a grade calf, even a good one, against registered cattle."

"I wrote a few men who handled registered stock for their prices on calves, and upon receiving them, decided that I could not afford to buy one. But the Cashier of the Bank encouraged me to enter with what I had. So, I entered Princess, not because I thought she would win, but to help boost the calf show, which was one of the features of the Fall Festival."

Cherrington says he thought it would take more than scientific feeding to make his calf a winner. "Princess" was kept in a shed all alone, given her daily exercise, and was washed as carefully as if she had the bluest blood in her veins. She proved the winner of the contest, and one of the happiest lads to board the Buckeye Corn Special, November 29, was her proud winner.

RED CROSS SEAL FIGURES.

225,000,000 Holiday Stickers Already Distributed in United States.

Few people have any conception of the magnitude of the Red Cross Christmas Seal Campaign. Here are a few figures that will show what a gigantic movement this is. Already 225,000,000 stickers have been distributed, and that entire number distributed to agents in every state and territory of the Union from Alaska in the North to the Canal Zone in the South and from Porto Rico in the East to Hawaii in the West. Advertising circulars, posters, cards, etc., the number of several million have also been distributed. Not less than 1,000,000 personal letters asking people to buy seals have been sent out. It is estimated that the army of workers, nearly all of whom are volunteers, engaged in selling the seals numbers in the millions. The advertising and publicity donated to the campaign amounts to several hundred thousand dollars. Every effort is being put forth to sell 750,000,000 seals, or less than one for every man, woman and child in the United States. This will mean $750,000 for the anti-tuberculosis campaign in the United States, and particularly all of the 1,200 anti-tuberculosis associations of the country derive their support from Red Cross Seals.

Red Cross Seal Single.

Hipity hop to the nearest Red Cross shop. To buy some Red Cross seals. With one on each letter. Of course you feel better.
